

MANUTTONE – Barbara Kowzan (MSc/MA Interior Designer, ACADEMY OF FINE ARTS in GDANSK / POLAND 1995-2000)

Manuttone a medium-size architectural studio in Poland, established in 2010. We offer interior design services. We have delivered turnkey projects to several hotel chains such as Intercontinental, Marriott, Scandic, Jumeirah, IHG ... - all carried out entirely by our Studio. We are ready to help every Client who wants to meet deadlines and quality standards to make conceptions, prepare detailed design documentation etc.

Barbara is owner Manuttone and a passionate about interior design and particularly hotels. Her extensive design experience covers both new build and refurbishment projects in Poland and abroad, covering all types of public and guest facilities in hotels, as well as furniture design. Barbara covers all aspects of the design process as well as the fit-out works to ensure quality in the execution process.

We use Autocad, Photoshop, Skatchup, 3dmax, and also sketch a lot.
We ensure effective cooperation.

WHO ARE WE:

PEOPLE SKILLS – because behind every success, there are people! We ensure that the right person is assigned to each project, and it is THEIR job satisfaction that matters most.

That is why, when forming project teams, we embrace the attributes of "soft management":

A progressive form of strategic human resource management that emphasizes the importance of the individual and enables the pursuit of professional interests and passions – which is crucial in creative work.

The collaborator is an empowered co-creator; their knowledge and skills are the source of our company's competitive advantage and value.

In "soft management," we draw on disciplines such as psychology, sociology, and philosophy to better diagnose and develop our collaborators' potential and analyze team dynamics.

The core of our soft management is building and maintaining positive emotional relationships between collaborators and the lead designer.

We value trust-based management, engagement management, talent management, professional competency management, relationship management, and motivation. motivation.
